FAMILY WILL:

- Make all attempts to ensure that the student arrives at school on time, fit and ready to work.
- Make sure that the student attends regularly and provides a note of explanation following any absence.
- Seek guidance from the school regarding any planned family holidays that could mean the student missing lessons.
- Make all attempts to ensure that the student has all the correct uniform and equipment (as outlined in the school prospectus and student planner).
- Support the student's learning by checking the Student Planner and monitoring homework and coursework.
- Let the school know about any concerns or problems at home that might affect the student's work or behaviour.
- Inform the school about our preferred lunchtime arrangements for the student and take full responsibility if the option to go home is chosen.
- Make sure we support parent consultation opportunities such as parents' evenings, target setting and review days.
- Support the school's Rewards and Sanctions contained within the Behaviour Policy.
